

Jan^r 14 1854

my dear grandma.

How is aunts tilda and all. I go to mrs duncans school yet. You asked me how little Harry was he is very well. Just now the other day i went to see him and he had a little whip and
d. and he tapped me with it and he walked right up and kissed me.
I am taking music lessons from Mrs hurr and Mrs cox asked me to play for her and she thought it was miss mary playing. I am only playing exercises yet but Mrs hurr says that she let me play a tune soon.

little Glarry does not talk yet, how are all those round in spruce st. & I remain your grandchild Louisa Kelly

Mama sends her love and says she will write you in a few days. papa says he is so sleepy that he dont know what to do with himself. please dont show this letter to any body it is so badly written.

dd
dd

ys

w
